

Perceptions

We are looking for a dynamic and creative Project Worker who is willing to help change people's perceptions about disability.

Are you enthusiastic about positively changing the way people with disabilities are viewed?

Can you promote ways in which people with disabilities can make a positive contribution?

Do you have the ability to work with a range of different people of different ages and abilities?

Do you believe that you can make a difference to the way people think, improve perceptions towards disability?

"Perceptions" will look at the way disability is perceived by people and will actively seek to change the way that people think.

Perceptions will be managed by Sunderland People First and Autism-in-Mind. You will be working with both companies and your base will be split between both organisations. Perceptions will be delivered in Hendon and Ryhope over a 12-month period. There are travel requirements attached to this post.

You will support a small team of people of varying abilities to deliver the project.

Salary: £17,000 per annum (one year fixed contract. 37 hours per week)

Job shares are welcome for this post. Please state if you would like to job share.

Project Support Advocates

Do you have a learning disability or autism?

Would you like to help people think differently about disability, and what people with disabilities can achieve within their own communities?

We are looking for two or more Project Support Advocates who will deliver our project "Perceptions" over 1 year. This will take place in Hendon and Ryhope communities in Sunderland.

You will be part of a small team of people to deliver a project called "Perceptions" to change the way people think about disabilities.

Our project will be delivered to community groups, like Brownies and Cubs, but also to older people in the community.

Do you think you would like to work with us?

Do you need help to apply for this job?

Salary: Hourly rate of £5.30 - £7.20 (depending on age) for up to 12 hours per week
